

About the company

To date, OOO Plant Lighting is a major supplier of lighting products under its own brand. While in Mordovia, Central lighting cluster of the Russian company OOO ZSP has a unique ability to implement complex supply a variety of lighting fixtures and light sources. In its activities the Plant Light Devices makes use of the rich experience base of the company acts and Trilyuks own development in the field of lighting with LEDs and fluorescent lamps contacts with the national network of design and marketing firms.ZSP, OOO continues to release well-known series of products. In connection with the expansion of production and its orientation to the most modern light sources is its diversification and the transfer to the industrial site in the city of Saransk. The company carries out the manufacture and delivery of fixtures to the next series The employees of the company Factory of Lighting Devices together with its partners are constantly working to improve the range and provision of high-quality products. We are open for cooperation and partnership focused on the successful conduct of joint

Link to article:: About the company