

The last record TestLamp.ru reviews and testing We hope that our project will help you make the right choice!

Man perceives the world using the five senses among which the most important is sight. The normal functioning of the visual apparatus it is impossible without the presence of light. With light we are able to assess the shape color and size of the objects surrounding us. Lighting not only affects the functioning of the visual apparatus it will determine visual performance but also on the human psyche, his emotional state. The constant presence of a person at home or at work in artificial light poor quality or insufficient brightness can lead to decreased work performance headaches depression deterioration of visual acuity development of cancer etc. the aim of the project testlamp.ru is the identification of specified on the packaging and in the technical documentation the technical specifications of sources of artificial lighting. Increase literacy of consumers, particularly domestic in the choice devices for artificial lighting bulbs lamps spotlights led strips and so the recommendation is successfully tested according to the declared characteristics and safety in the process of operation of the light sources. For testing the test specimens, we have the following equipment Photometric ball The Spectroradiometer Luxmeter Digital power meter Power conditioners Luxmeter + Pulsimeter + Ercomer Multimeter Digital oscilloscope Audience testlamp.ru receive accurate information about the lighting fixtures on the market the results of the measurements as close as possible to the laboratory. Gets information about the quality and possible lifetime of lighting devices and recommendations for

Link to article:: The last record TestLamp.ru reviews and testing We hope that our project will help you make the right choice!